

Frayer Models

Directions:

Write the exact definition of your term here. (Use the glossary or a dictionary.)	Describe the characteristics of your term here. (Use your own words.)
Write the term or concept you are explaining here.
Give several examples of your term here. (Use more than one kind.)	Give several non-examples here. (Use related items that are not examples of your term.)

Sample #1: Create a Frayer model for the word jellybean.

A small, bean-shaped, usually brightly colored candy with a hard sugar coating and a firm gelatinous filling.	A small colorful candy. It's sort of egg-shaped and it's chewy inside.
Jellybean
Jelly-Belly®, Charms®, Jolly Rancher®, Smuckers®	Chocolate bar, Twizzlers®, peanuts, marshmallows, M&Ms®

Sample #2: Create a Frayer model for the word polygon.

A closed plane figure having three or more sides.	It's a flat shape that has straight sides. It can't have curves or openings.
Polygon
  Rectangle  Square  Parallelogram  Triangle  Trapezoid	Squiggle  Circle  the letter "K"  Curve 